

CONTINUITY PRESENTS MARTYRS' WALK

Four hundred and fifty years ago, hundreds of men and women in England began to be martyred for their Catholic Faith. On the 21st of June, at 11:00, join us on Tower Hill to renew their witness during the second annual Martyrs' Walk.

Who were the Martyrs? They were brave men and women who preferred to die rather than deny their Catholic Faith. Many were brutally dragged through London to be hanged, drawn, and quartered for their Catholic beliefs.

Much of the Walk will follow this very same route. Beginning at Tower Hill, it will pass many historic sites of Catholic interest and end at Tyburn Convent. Walk with us on the 21st of June and announce to the world that the witness of the Martyrs is still alive today.

AGENDA

Gather on Tower Hill – where Saints John Fisher and Thomas More were beheaded – at 11:00 for an initial talk by Joanna Bogle.

Come prepared for a five-mile walk, and bring your own sack lunch.

Stop for lunch at 1:00 in the gardens of Greyfriars, the site of an ancient Franciscan Monastery, where a presentation will be given.

Begin the walk to St. Patrick's Church, along the very route the Martyrs were dragged. Pass the sites of their burial along the way.

Arrive at 3:00 in St. Patrick's Church for the rite of Benediction, followed by refreshments in Soho Square.

Hear at 5:30 the Sunday Vigil Mass at Tyburn Convent, in celebration and commemoration of all that has passed.
